Young Native Aristocrats RHODODENDRON, LAUREL

We specialize in these beautiful natives, small and inexpensive, but large enough so that they will grow without too much attention. We offer two grades, both with earth ball, but the heavier is some two years further along than the lighter grade, and sooner in bloom.

The light grade is carefully collected, has one to three stems to each little clump. Costs 6 cents express (approx.)

Can also furnish other natives from Carolina hills, Azaleas, Leucothoe, in similar grades. The heavy grade is the same height, 12 to 15 inches, has four to eight stems to a clump, bushier. Costs 20 to 24 cents express. (approx.)

Profits from Shrubs

Here are two small bushes that require no cultivation or care. In midsummer they yield heavy crops of fruit that has a high market value and sells readily. There are few other opportunities for paying expenses on a summer home, or deriving an actual profit. They require no work but picking, and the value of the crop is enough to pay for hired labor on this. Blueberries, for instance, in their fourth year from planting should yield 50 cents a bush (2 quarts) and rise to $1 per bush in a few years.
